

We request that the "Do Not Call " legislation not be changed or diluted to open up opportunities for unsolicited phone calls. We consider this as nuisance and harassment. Our privacy is important to us, and we do not appreciate invasion by those who seek to sell or extract information, without our permission or our own initiation. Thank you.